

THE FATAL GUN.

Details of the Accidental Killing of Young Balzer.

THE INTELLIGENCER FIRST TOLD

of the Accident Yesterday—The Man Died at a Farm House Near Elm Grove Early Yesterday Morning—He Did Not Fear Death, but Met It Resignedly—Details of the Deploable Tragedy—Albinger Did Not Fire the Fatal Shot.

As was chronicled exclusively in the Intelligencer yesterday morning, a fatal and sad shooting affair occurred a few miles east of Elm Grove Monday afternoon. The details and the names of the principals could not be learned in time for publication yesterday morning, but the facts of the case were given.

As a result of the accident, George Balzer, a popular young man on the South Side, is dead, and the friends who accompanied him on the hunting trip are almost prostrated by grief. The story of the sad accident was told to an Intelligencer reporter last night by Frank Albinger and is substantially as follows:

"Our crowd, composed of Will Menkemiller, Ed Mack, George Balzer, and myself, had made up the hunting party the day before, and left here about 4 o'clock Monday morning, in a wagon. We took coffee and lunch, intending to make a day of it in the woods. We drove out the pike about eight miles east of Elm Grove, where we started in to stir up a rabbit or two. Our luck was bad and up to dinner time we hadn't sighted a single 'cotton tail.' We were near the home of Mr. Joseph Connelly and went there to heat our coffee. After dinner, Mr. Connelly said he would show us where we might strike something and directed us up the road about a mile.

"We hunted around and finally Balzer brought down one rabbit. Poor Balzer only had a chance to fire his gun once and then he missed his mark. He reloaded and we tramped over the hills, here and there, for probably two hours and a half, when I sighted a large stump standing in the middle of the wheat field. I went over to it and sat down, resting my gun at my side with the barrel against the stump. The other boys saw me and came over and sat on the ground near the stump. Balzer was the last to come; he sat down about five or six feet from the stump. He handed me his gun, telling me to rest it beside mine against the stump, which I did.

"We sat there for probably half an hour and had decided to try our luck hunting over in Ohio next week, and after we had settled on the time, Will Menkemiller pulled out his watch and said: 'Boys it's exactly 4 o'clock; suppose we go home?' With this we started to get up, when we were startled by the report of one of the guns and looking around we saw Balzer fall.

"In the excitement of the moment none of us noticed how the guns were standing, for we ran toward Balzer to lend him all the assistance possible. It wasn't the least idea how the gun came to be discharged, and the statement in the News that I shot him is entirely false.

"The charge struck Balzer under the right arm, showing that his arm was raised when the shot struck him. We immediately went for assistance and summoned Drs. Shields, of Tridelfphia, and Cracraft, of Elm Grove, who rendered all the medical assistance possible. Mr. Connelly and some of the neighbors came and we hauled him over to Connelly's house, where he died at 5 o'clock this morning. He was conscious until shortly before he breathed his last, and exhibited a great deal of nerve, walking with assistance from the sled into the house and to the bed.

"At the suggestion of the physician, we went for Father Paquin, of Elm Grove, who administered the last sacrament to the dying man. After this the priest told Balzer that he could not live, and at Balzer's request, witnesses were called and he made his will."

"He left the house in which he lives, on Market street, below Thirty-third, and the lot upon which it stands to the congregation of the church of the Immaculate Conception, on the South Side; his Martin's Ferry property to the Little Sisters of the Poor at Elm Grove; $500 to Ed Mack, and Mr. Connelly, in whose house he died, and all his personal property, to Mrs. Henry Belser, who lives next door to his home. His kishak he left to Johnnie Tucker, a South Side boy, and about $1,500 which remains in cash will be used to defray the funeral expenses and erect a monument.

"The coroner's story of the accident and the circumstances which led to it is about the same as the above, as are those of the gentlemen who were present when the shooting occurred.

"Father Paquin says the statement that Balzer had left anything to the Orphan's Home at Elm Grove is a mistake. The body was brought to this city yesterday morning and taken to the undertaking establishment of Louis Betschey, where it was prepared for burial. The funeral will take place from his late residence at No. 3313 Market street, to-morrow morning, at half past eight. Mass will be said over the remains at the church of the Immaculate Conception at 9 o'clock, and the interment will take place at Mt. Calvary cemetery.

"Coroner Schultze investigated the shooting yesterday, and will hold an inquest at his office Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

George Balzer was thirty-two years of age, and was a brother of the late Rosa Balzer who, up to the time of her death, which occurred about a year ago, kept a millinery establishment on Main street. When his sister died, the only one of the family left was George, and he furnished his house at 3313 Market street, where he slept, taking his meals at Frank Albinger's.

He was well and favorably known about town and had a large circle of friends. His parents and sister died of consumption, and he has often said that he would soon go the same way. He said to his companions on the way out the pike on Monday, that it would not be long before he was laid away, and pointed out the spot in Mt. Calvary cemetery, where he would be buried. When he was told he could not live he was resigned, and very calmly dictated the terms of his will.

FOOT BALL.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

MORGANTOWN, W. Va., Nov. 24.—The West Virginia university foot ball team had its last practice for the year this evening, when they lined up against a score of scrubs and scored a touchdown, besides getting some good practice. To-morrow the team will leave by boat for Pittsburgh, where on Thanksgiving day they will play against the Pittsburgh Athletic Club. An excursion steamer has been chartered and it will carry a big crowd of students and enthusiasts who will see that noise is not absent from the university side. The line-up on Thursday will not vary materially from the line-up against Duquesne on Saturday.

Krebs, who was reported laid up with three ribs broken, did not look like a physical wreck this evening in practice, as assured the Intelligencer correspondent that he would be in the game and do the hardest kind of playing. Yeager's sprained hand and South's "Charley-Horse" leg are rounding to nicely, and they will both be in the game. The loyalty of the students and town people toward the team was attested this evening, when at least 500 went out to see the last practice. They all realize the team's hard luck this year. They have had the strongest teams beside the faculty and sheriff, to go against, and their record speaks for itself. They are not ashamed of it, neither are the students and friends of athletes. The attachment proceedings instituted by Lafayette against the receipts of the Duquesne game on Saturday were dismissed to-day because no affidavit was filed with the writ of attachment. The university association is indignant at such treatment. It is true there is a balance due Lafayette, but every cent of it will be paid. The association is not going to beat anybody out of a penny. Lafayette has forgotten that the university filled a hole in Lafayette's team, and a lamentably weak one, when Yeast was leased to them to play in the Pennsylvania game.

Altenheim and Bethany.

The Altenheim and Bethany college foot ball teams have arranged for a contest on Thanksgiving Day at 3 p. m. The Altenheim team will be minus several players, on account of absence from the city, but they have procured substitutes, and expect to make a good showing. It was erroneously stated by another paper that the Altenheim team was defeated by the Linsly team on Saturday. It was the Altenheim Juniors, however, that played, and not the regular Altenheim club.

When his health failed a year or two ago he gave up his Allegheny charge and went to North Carolina, where he was interested in a college and remained there until recently he wrote to his father, quiet, country home; where he passed away as stated. He was an excellent man, an able minister and one whose heart was always in his work. Two sons survive him, both being students in the North Carolina college mentioned.

There are no less than fifty applicants in the county for the guardianship at the penitentiary. There can be but one on whose head the plum can fall, according to an act passed by the late legislature.

MARTIN'S FERRY.

Haps and Mishaps in the Thriving City Across the River.

A number of young people met on Monday night and decided to form an organization for the purpose of giving monthly entertainments in Martin's Ferry. A drama will be given for the purpose of raising money toward the town clock fund. Musical and literary entertainments will also be given. The organization will probably be called the Entertainers. A meeting will be held next Tuesday evening, at which time officers will be elected. Meetings will be held weekly.

An Important Difference.

To make it apparent to thousands, who think themselves ill, that they are not afflicted with any disease, but that the system simply needs cleansing, is to bring comfort home to their hearts, as a positive condition is easily cured by using Syrup of Figs. Manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Company only, and sold by all druggists.

MAKE IT PUBLIC.

Publicity Counts—That's what the People Want—Wheeling Expresses on the Subject.

Make it public.
Tell the people about it.
Gratitude promotes publicity.
Grateful citizens talk.
They tell their neighbors—tell their friends.

The news is too good to keep.
Everybody should know about the little conquerer.
"Rad backs" are numerous.
So few understand the cause.
Many Wheeling people are learning.
And better still, they're being cured.
Lame backs are lame no more.
Weak ones regain their strength.
This is the every day labor in Wheeling.

Of Doan's Kidney Pills.
Our citizens are making it public.
Read this proof supplied by Mrs. Robert Liebert, of No. 175 Fourteenth street: "I first noticed," she says, "that my kidneys were out of order twenty-five years ago, but I seemed to get over each successive attack until recent years, when they have rapidly become much worse. With the exception of kidney trouble I have always been strong and healthy, but lately it produced so much suffering in my loins, back and head, that I could not do anything by day or rest well at night, and was obliged to sleep with my hands on my back, it hurt me so. This was accompanied by a distressing weakness in the kidney secretions. I used different remedies and plasters but even the latter lately failed to give me any relief. I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised and came to the conclusion they would help me, so I got a box at the Logan Drug Co., and took them. I was not disappointed as they helped me right away, and I now feel better and stronger than for years."

Doan's Kidney Pills are sold for 50 cents per box, or six boxes for $2.50, by all dealers, or mailed on receipt of price by Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

At Fourth Street Church.

The members of Fourth street M. E. church will hold an early prayer and praise service to-morrow morning at seven o'clock. The services, which will be held under the supervision of the Epworth League, will be open to all persons.

Women in the far East are educated to a life of pure sensuality. Wrong, of course, but the other extreme is nearly as bad. Continually a hammering is made upon the idea that anything connected with the reproduction of the human species is of necessity bad and degrading has had, in civilized countries, the effect of keeping women in ignorance and of developing a false modesty that has been prolific of weakness and disease. Four out of every five women in America are not perfect women, in the sense of being perfectly healthy. They are not perfectly equipped for the performance of the duties of wifehood and motherhood. Their training has made them feel that it is better to suffer in silence than to tell of their trouble and be cured.

The doctors are much to blame for this, because when treating the diseases peculiarly feminine they invariably insist on examination and local treatment. That these things are generally absolutely unnecessary has been proven by the wonderful success of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It is a positive specific for all forms of female weakness and disease. It purifies the system and regulates the organs distinctively feminine, restoring them to a state of perfect health, and in so doing cures four-fifths of all the illness of women, for almost all womanly illnesses spring from this one cause.

Any woman who wants to know just how to use the "Favorite Prescription," and just what methods will be surely successful in her case, may have the desired information, free of cost if she will write to Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the only known cure for constipation, biliousness, heart-burn, and indigestion. There are many temporary remedies for these troubles, but only one cure. The "Pleasant Pellets" do not gripe or cause any other unpleasantness. Druggists sell them—25 cents.

HEALTH HINTS.

Tenth Truly Told Without Varnish or Word Faltering.

"Stomach deranged, system deranged." Physicians affirm it, facts prove it. The sufferer from stomachic trouble proves the foregoing statement. The stomach is the mill that grinds the food that sustains the body. The slightest ailment interferes with its workings and all becomes wrong. It is the immediate aliment that one must guard against. The most common forms of stomach troubles are wind on the stomach, indigestion, colic, sour stomach, etc. Lightning Hot Drops is a remedy that immediately and absolutely affords relief, and in every case effects a permanent and lasting cure. Where Lightning Hot Drops is found, stomachic troubles cease to exist. It has cured thousands of obstinate and unyielding cases, and it will cure others. It has never, in any instance, failed. Lightning Hot Drops stands to-day as a permanent and absolutely reliable remedy for sufferers from all stomach troubles. It is put up and sold in 25 and 50 cent sizes.
